Earn $250 While You Learn About Business Careers in Manufacturing!

Are you thinking about a career in business?

MFG U is a FREE, one week adventure to learn more about how you can put your business skills to work in manufacturing.

- Learn how areas like buying materials, shipping products, checking quality, managing money, and promoting sales all work together to keep a business running smoothly.
- Visit a variety of manufacturing facilities to see how products are sold, built, inventoried, and shipped
- Participate in simulations that put theory into practice and improve critical thinking, teamwork, and communication skills you'll need for college and beyond
- Receive an ADVanced Insights profile to better understand your personal strengths and motivators
- Experience life on a college campus and meet people who can answer questions about the business world

Registration closes June 1 - Apply Here!

York College is also offering a significant scholarship for participants!
